

Cookies disclaimer

Our websites uses information capsules/cookies. When you use our websites you also accept the way we use cookies.

A cookie is a small text file that contains information about which pages you have visited, and the choices you have made when browsing the websites. Cookies are stored on your computer, tablet or smartphone when visiting our websites. We use the information to look at the number of visitors we have and to adapt the user experience to you. We do not use cookies to store personal information.

Most browsers are set to accept cookies. You can block all cookies, or choose to be informed when a cookie is stored, by changing the settings under "internet alternatives" in your browser. Note that changing these setting may change the way you experience the websites.
